21 Management Conference from the current date of April 11, 2006, to May 30, 2006.

22 Good cause exists for continuing the further case management conference:

23 1. The initial Case Management Conference in this case was held on 24 January 3, 2006. At the Case Management Conference, the parties indicated an intention to 25 cooperatively exchange information relative to claims and defenses. The Court referred parties
26 to Magistrate Judge Richard Seeborg for settlement conference and set a Further Case 27 Management Conference for April 11, 2006. Judge Seeborg set a settlement conference for 28 March 24, 2006.

2. The parties held a cooperative site inspection on February 6, 2006 and a further site inspection on February 20, 2006. A meeting of counsel and experts regarding the injunctive relief issues took place on March 7, 2006.

3. On March 15, 2006 Judge Seeborg, on his own motion, continued the

1 settlement conference date from March 24, 2006 to May 9, 2006, after the date currently set for 2 the further case management conference.

3 4. The Further Case Management Conference should be held after the 4 Settlement Conference, as the parties will not have anything substantive to report to the Court
 5 until the Settlement Conference is held.

6 5. There are no trial or discovery dates set, and no party would be 7 prejudiced by the requested continuance.

8 Therefore, the parties now hereby request that the further case management
 9 conference be continued to May 30, 2006 at 2:00 p.m., with the joint case management
 10 statement due by May 23, 2006.
